

for and about Women

MARY NETH, WOMAN'S EDITOR

TELEPHONE FAairfax 8-2345

MRS. DAVID HUNTER —Photo by Seeman

DuRant, Hunter Names Joined in Marriage

Mary Jean DuRant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton DuRant, 2106 240th St., and David Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunter of 16612 Casimir, Gardena, were joined in marriage at the Calvary Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, April 26 at 3 p.m.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father wearing a lace over tulle, long sleeved gown with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her veil was bordered in lace and she carried a white bouquet of cymbidium and orchids.

Mr. Hunter, wearing a polo shirt and vest, served as maid of honor and Hideyo Haga as ring bearer. Wedding music "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were presented by soloists Phyllis Burns and William Vance.

Following the ceremony a reception for 125 guests was held at the church.

Members of the family attending were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gottlieb, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Busby and Miss Jean Murphy.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and has attended Valley Junior College. She is presently studying at El Camino College.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Gardena High School. He is majoring in language at El Camino College.

Following a honeymoon at the Jamaica Inn, Laguna, the couple will reside in Torrance.

Birthday Offering Given by Service Guild

A birthday offering for Life Membership highlighted the April dinner meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild at the First Methodist Church on El Prado.

Mrs. Doris Tanner reported on the Spring Rally at Santa Barbara and Mrs. Marjorie Champion concluded the series of studies on the prophet Isaiah.

Installation services were held for new members: Mrs. Marjorie Champion, Kay Ross, Johnny Leidt. Special guests were Reverend and Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. Sara Jones and Mrs. Susie Spooner from Iowa.

Dinner was served by the Martha Circle.

Walteria BPW Slates 'Work Night'

Walteria Business Women's Club will hold a combination meeting and rummage sale "work night" May 11 at 7:30 p.m. in preparation for its May 12 sale.

Dr. Warren D. Cuttings, a local dentist, spoke on his profession at the recent meeting at Corsos' Restaurant, 3800 Pacific Coast Hwy. Three guests Mmes. Joanne Stark, Beck's yardage shop, Edith Chaney, Chaney's upholstery and draperies and Louis Bayer, wife of a local architect were introduced by Dr. Eleanor Thill, president.

Lorraine Mayne of the Mountaineer Troop, 776 Lomita, was given a donation by the club toward her trip to the June Scout Jamboree at Denver, Colorado.

Members of the family attending were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gottlieb, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Busby and Miss Jean Murphy.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and has attended Valley Junior College. She is presently studying at El Camino College.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Gardena High School. He is majoring in language at El Camino College.

Following a honeymoon at the Jamaica Inn, Laguna, the couple will reside in Torrance.

TROPICAL FASHIONS will be modeled at the Plush Horse fashion show May 13, when the Welcome Wagon holds its installation-luncheon. From left, Diana Mitchell, wearing a Cup of Gold print, and Suzette Duval, in an authentic springtime gown from Hawaii, give a preview of the styles to be presented by Helen's Boutique. Models are from the Jean Barnhart Studio.

Tropical Theme Planned for Installation Dinner

Amidst a swirl of tropical fashions, Torrance Welcome Wagon Club will usher in new officers May 13 at a luncheon-installation at the Plush Horse, 1700 Pacific Coast Hwy.

Colorful Island prints and tropical beachwear will be displayed by professional models from the Jeanne Barnhart Studio prior to the installation.

Mrs. Donald Waldrop, outgoing president, will preside as Mrs. N. R. Irons, supervisor of the Welcome Wagon Hostesses installs the officers for the new year.

Mrs. Arthur Bordley will move up from treasurer to take over the presidency. Serving with her will be Mmes. Gale Lowder, first vice-president and membership chairman; Frank Ketterer, second vice-president, program and publicity chairman; Robert Bradley, third vice-president, ways and means chairman; Conrad Babb, recording secretary; Harold Corell, corresponding secretary and Carl Farrington, treasurer.

One lucky guest will win a three-day trip for two at the Hacienda Hotel, Las Vegas, and a host of other prizes await those who attend.

Tickets may be reserved by calling Mrs. Joe Carter, FA 8-5899, 1645 Hickory.

Fashions will be furnished by Helens Boutique Shop, 245 Avenida del Norte.

A charitable and social organization, Welcome Wagon Club attempts to greet residents new to Torrance and provide a medium for creating new friendships. The group also assists several hospitals, and supports various charity groups.

Seahorse Set to Salute Hawaii with May Luau

The Seahorses, couples' fellowship group of St. Luke's Presbyterian Church of Rolling Hills Estates, will salute Hawaii at their first fleet activity of the year, May 1, at the fellowship hall of St. Andrews Church, Redondo Beach.

Vice-admirals in charge of the luau are Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Collins.

Elaborate plans for the luau include exotic decorations, indoor waterfalls, pools, plus Easter Island statues and palm trees. Mountains of flowers and lighting arrangements, to provide a tropical outdoor atmosphere will be featured.

Orchid leis will be flown in from Hawaii. The two ships planning the decorations are called Los Pescadores and The Icebreakers, whose skippers are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Tillotson and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gardner, respectively.

Wally Chumm and the Islanders have been engaged to prepare and serve the food, which features the ceremonial Kalua pig with all the trimmings and tropical fruit. The Islanders also will provide the entertainment for the evening, which includes native dancers, hula instruction and an evening of dancing.

St. Luke's Presbyterian is a newly organized church, organized by Rev. Thomas M. Gibson of the Los Angeles Presbytery. Rev. Gibson was installed as pastor in July, 1956, and is the present pastor of St. Luke's. The group meets in the Dapplegray School, Rolling Hills Estates, each Sunday morning for two worship services, 9 and 10:30 a. m.

A new church will be built soon.

The building committee has obtained the services of Lloyd Wright to design and direct the construction of the new church.

'Season Opener' Dance

The first in a series of three dances to be given by the North Torrance Little League Auxiliary will be held May 2 at 8:30 p.m. at the Gardena Elks Hall, 1735 Market St.

Jack Kenning and his "Night Cappers" will provide the music.

Beside the "Season Opener," two other dances are scheduled—the "Season Wrap-up" dance on July 11, and the "Installation" Dance on October 24.

New Church Organizes

Next Sunday at 2:30 a new church will be organized at Hermosa Beach from a mission sponsored by the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita. This will be the sixth church organized from the mission work of the congregation.

Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m., Pastor Robert A. Wells will begin a series of four messages on "Learning to Live" directed to the young people of the church.

Big Variety Show to Open This Evening

Tonight is the night the doors will open for the all-Western variety show of the Torrance Council PTA at 7:30 p.m. at the Torrance High School Auditorium.

Art Lester from Edison PTA and past president of the Toastmasters, will serve as master of ceremonies.

Mother Singers will perform in groups and in the grand finale, Opal Herman and Gloria Clark from Torrance Council PTA will present a piano duet and the popular girls quartet, Nancy Hornbeck, Sue Larson, Marilyn Holcomb and Judy Minor from Torrance High School will sing.

Tom Huff, well known for his work with the YMCA, will entertain with his guitar. Mr. and Mrs. McKeown, he is custodian for Torrance School District, will give exhibition dancing.

Tickets for this evening's and Friday's performance at 50 cents will be available at the door. Torrance High's Pep Squad will act as hosts and hostesses for the evening.

IN REGAL CROWN, Darol Gayle Hope Boyko, winner of the No. Torrance Fuchsia Society recent queen candidate contests, poses with the trophy she was awarded at April 14 judging.

sent to Konya, Turkey. Madrona to speak on the subject of nar will hold its annual open house April 28.

Lieut. Restovich of the Torrance Police Department is slated to speak on the subject of narcotics at the next meeting.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Hugh Brady and Mrs. Ralph Kenner.

PEPPY HOSTESSES will greet comers to the big variety show slated for this evening and Friday at the Torrance High School auditorium at 7:30 p. m. The all-western revue is sponsored by the PTA Council with funds to go to the Lunch and Milk Fund. From left, front row: Diane Wayt, Carolyn Campben, Carol Surber, Betty Baker, Diane Hunter; back row: Loretta Robinson, Judy Bowldes, Martha Goodrow, Mimi Cowan, Carol Moore, Pat Achenbach, Pat Travis, Yvonne Graham, Evelyn Salas and Gerry Day. Jumping: Diana Cook and Linda Williams.

May Plans Set at PTA Board Meet

Madrona PTA held its recent board meeting at the home of Mrs. Marion E. Momo. Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, president, told of plans to attend the May California Congress of Parents and Teachers convention at Los Angeles. Accompanying her will be Mrs. V. G. Bliss, newly elected president for the coming year.

William Forrest, principal, announced that Miss Phyllis Fox's fifth grade class held a successful rummage sale. Proceeds will go for CARE packages to be

Singing Group to Make Road Trip

Performances in Visalia, Fresno and Springville will highlight the second annual tour of the El Camino College A Capella Choir, April 23, 24 and 25.

Some 60 choristers, including a vocal ensemble group of 20, will make the tour under the direction of R. Neil Hill, music instructor. Accompanist for the musical groups will be Mrs. Kay Grantham.

The musical tour will follow an active season featuring performances before the neighboring high schools, civic groups, campus audiences. Highlighting the fall season was the presentation of the annual Christmas Concert in the Campus Theater. The current year's activities will close with performances of the annual Spring Concert on Sunday, May 31.

VAN SEZ:

Do you know that the man who discovered gold in California died in poverty? He was James W. Marshall.

You don't have to be a discoverer of gold to enjoy the comforts of a fine home! Venetian blinds, for example, not only give you complete privacy, but add a modern, sensitive look to your house. You'd be surprised at how little it costs! Call today for full information... no obligation.

VAN'S SHADE & LINOLEUM

CARPETING — DRAPERIES
ALUM. AWNINGS — SCREENS
FORMICA — FLOOR TILES
732 AVALON BLVD.
WILMINGTON — TR 4-6405

Visit Our New ARTIST'S SUPPLY SECTION

Featuring a Complete Line of Grumbacher Brushes, Colors and Artist's Materials.

JUMBO'S

TOYS — HOBBIES — SPORTING GOODS

4864 W. 190TH ST., TORRANCE FR 2-8017
YEAR-AROUND LAYAWAYS S&H GREEN STAMPS

Use Torrance Press Classified Ads

Introductory Offer!

MOTHER'S DAY SPECIAL!

PERMANENT WAVE

A $15.00 BRECK WAVE for only $12.50

(For the Month of May Only)

Spaw's

HAIR STYLING

1270 Sartori
Downtown Torrance
Open Thursday Eve.

famous Tussy Deodorants

Now 50¢ Regularly $1.00 Plus Tax

Choose your favorite way to all-day daintiness — and save!

Tussy Cream Deodorant
Tussy Roto-Magic Action
Tussy Stick Deodorant

McCOWN DRUG STORES

1327 El Prado, Torrance
Coast Highway at Western, Lomita

THE PERFECT GIFT FOR MOM!

NEW lady capri by PAPER-MATE

Guaranteed not to skip... even writes over a smear of butter!

$2.95

smart new clip-on carry-case for pocket or purse! ... extra skip-free refill

McCOWN DRUG STORES

1327 El Prado, Torrance
Coast Hwy. at Western, Lomita